Because technology is a vital part of the Williamsburg School District curriculum, computers, computer network, and the Internet will be made available to staff and students. Appropriate and equitable use of computer resources will allow staff and students to access resources unavailable through traditional means.

Individual student accounts will be issued to students for access to school computers, the computer network, and the Internet. The Internet can provide a vast collection of educational resources for staff and students. It is a global network which makes it impossible to control all available information. Because information appears, disappears, and changes constantly, it is not possible to predict or control what students may locate. The Williamsburg School District makes no guarantees as to the accuracy of information received on the Internet. Although students will be under teacher supervision while on school computers, it is not possible to constantly monitor individual students and what they are accessing on the network or Internet. Some students might encounter information that may not be of educational value. Student Internet records and access records are confidential records treated like other student records. Student Network and Internet activities will be monitored by district staff to ensure students are not accessing inappropriate sites that violate conditions of the Network User Guidelines. The Williamsburg School District will use technology protection measures to protect students from inappropriate access.

Staff and students will be instructed on appropriate use of school computers, networks, and the Internet. Students and their parents will sign a form acknowledging that they have read and understand the Student Network User Guidelines, that they will comply with the policy, and understand the consequences for violation of the policy. This form also serves as the permission form to allow students to access the Internet.

Every user of the Williamsburg Community School District’s Network is expected to comply with the District Policy and Administrative Regulation and to recognize his/her responsibility when using its services, sites, systems, and personnel.
